

The Gods chose Vishnu to destroy the demon Ravana
They split his soul into pudding and gave it to the King of India

The childless King gave the pudding to his wives Pudding gave them three lives

Rama was the oldest child
He was Vishnu's another life

He was sent by his stepmother to the woods
His wife Sita and Lakshmana followed him and left all their goods

Although he was asked to return by Bharata,
He did his Dharma

He met a demoness called Surpanakha
She tried to kill her because she was jealous of Sita

Lakshmana cut off her nose and ears
Her brother Khara appears

The demons get killed by Rama
Surpanakha goes to her brother Ravana

Surpanakha asks Ravana to take revenge
He tricks Sita to avenge

Ravana distracts Rama with a deer and he disguises as Brahmin to get Sita near

Then Ravana kidnaps Sita using his cart and tears Jatayu's (King of Vultures) wings apart

Jatayu dies in arms of Rama and gets a ceremony based on his belief in Brahman and Samsara

Hanuman finds Sita in Lanka
Found and punished by Ravana

Rama comes to Lanka and defeats Ravana
The he and Sita returns to Kosala
